CIRCULAR

Sub: Ph.D. Unsatisfactory Progress Report-Cancellation of admission- Reg.

Ref.: Minutes of the 18th meeting of Senate of NIT Andhra Pradesh, dated- 15.05.2023.

Vide the reference cited above, the following amendments have been made in the existing Ph.D. regulations of the Institute.

- If a candidate fails to get the satisfactory progress report (for the first time), based on the recommendations of DSC, the candidate may be permitted to register for the next semester. No stipend will be provided until the candidate gets satisfactory report.
- If a candidate gets two consecutive unsatisfactory progress reports, based on the recommendations of the DSC, the admission of the candidate is liable for cancellation.

The above amendments will be effective from the odd semester of 2023 to all the full-time and part-time research scholars joined for the Ph.D. program from the year 2019 and onwards.
